3. Art and Aesthetics of Cinematography

Pazhassiraja College, Pulpally, Wayanad

October 08, 09- 2023

Art and Aesthetics of Cinematography

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication at Pazhassiraja College, Pulpally, Wayanad, organized a session on the "Art and Aesthetics of Cinematography" for MA JMC students. The session was conducted by Lithin Mathew, Head of the Department of Journalism at Alphonso College, Thiruvambady, who is an expert in the field of cinematography.

Key Highlights

Introduction to Cinematography: Lithin Mathew began the session by providing an overview of cinematography, emphasizing its importance as an art form in filmmaking.

Elements of Cinematography: The resource person discussed the various elements that contribute to the aesthetics of cinematography, including camera movement, framing, lighting, and composition.

Training Programmes

Historical Evolution: Lithin Mathew traced the evolution of cinematography from the early experiments with motion pictures to the modern era of digital filmmaking, highlighting the contributions of pioneering cinematographers.

Iconic Shots and Visual Storytelling: The session focused on the significance of iconic shots in cinema and how they contribute to visual storytelling. Examples from the works of renowned filmmakers like Alfred Hitchcock, Stanley Kubrick, and Akira Kurosawa were discussed.

Current Trends and Future Outlook: Lithin Mathew discussed the current trends in cinematography, such as the "Neon Renaissance" and the use of vibrant colors, and explored the innovative directions that visual storytelling might take in the future.

Conclusion

The session on the "Art and Aesthetics of Cinematography" was an engaging and informative experience for the MA JMC students at Pazhassiraja College. Lithin Mathew's expertise and insights into the world of cinematography provided the students with a deeper understanding of the art form and its evolution. The session emphasized the importance of visual storytelling and the role of cinematography in shaping the cinematic experience.
