Report of the SING AND WIN Competition Organised By Music and Cultural Club on 21/06/2021

Music and Cultural Club of Pazhassiraja College organized an online singing competition SING and WIN for the students of Pazhassiraja College on behalf of the world music day on June 21st

The participants were asked to send a video of their song and students from almost all departments participated in the competition which made the first activity of the club in this academic year, a great success.

Ms.Tesin Sebastian Asst.Professor Lissah College who is a singer and has commendable knowledge in music was the judge of the competition. The programme has got great appreciation from the students as it gave them an opportunity to exhibit their talents in this lock down period.
