

Department of Microbiology

Farewell Party- 2016-17

Venue: Chithrasala, Pazhassiraja College.

The farewell party was organized by junior students to bid farewell for their seniors in final year on 30.3.2017 and 23.6.2017 for UG and PG respectively. The Principal, Bursar, HOD and all faculty members attended the farewell party. The Head of the department addressed the students with inspiring words. The students were given guidance for their future programmes like career or research and various job opportunities in the field were also conveyed. The bursar of the college wished them good luck and success in life. The teachers also conveyed their blessings. A total of 91 students in UG and 16 students in PG participated in the programme.

The party was conducted by juniors performing many cultural activities and small refreshment was also arranged.

