DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Reading Week Observation 2021-2022

Reading is necessary for firming the foundation of knowledge. Reading takes us to the world of eternal possibilities. It stimulates the mind and enables us to enter the living, breathing space of the fictional characters. With all forms of learning now having turned digital, reading and the celebration of the same has become digitalized too.

In connection with the Reading week, the Department of English organized a departmental Quiz competition on July 7, 2021, at 2 pm. The competition was conducted online using google forms. 17 enthusiastic students participated in the event and two among them, Akhila PS and Anjali Rose, bagged the first and second positions respectively.
