EQUATIONS is a research, campaign and advocacy organization which is studying the social, cultural, economic and environmental impact of tourism on local communities in India.

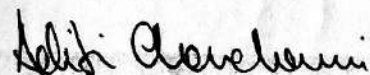

Joshu worked on a Literature Review on Labour and Environment Practices of the Hotel Industry in India. He has been an involved, serious and committed intern and has proved his ability to work independently. He familiarised himself with the work and was effective and thorough with the tasks assigned to him.

In the course of his internship with us, we have observed that he is friendly, displayed good communication skills and is able to work in a multi-cultural setting.

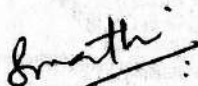

We hope this internship will influence his perspectives and benefit his future academic work.

We wish him the very best in his future endeavours.
